Commemoration of our Holy Father Boukolos, Bishop of Smyrna

and of Holy Martyr, the physician Elian of Emessa (Homs).

Antiphon of the Encounter

O Son of God who were carried in the arms of Simeon the Just, save us who sing to You: Alleluia

1: Gird Your sword upon Your thigh, O Mighty One!

2: In Your splendor and majesty, ride triumphant in the cause of truth and for the sake of justice.

3: Your arrows are sharp; peoples are subject to You; the king's enemies lose heart. A tempered rod is your royal scepter.

Troparion of the Resurrection (Tone 4)

Troparion of the Encounter (Tone 1)

Hail, O Woman full of grace, Virgin and Mother of God: from you has arisen the Sun of Justice, Christ our God, enlightening those who stand in darkness, In You too, O just Elder Simeon, rejoice, for you carried in your arms the Redeemer of our souls, our Resurrection.

Troparion of St. Basil the Great (Tone 1)

See Divine Liturgy book

Kontakion of the Pharisee and the Publican (Tone 4)

Let us shun the proud attitude of the boastful Pharisee and learn humility from the Publican's sighs; let us cry out to our Savior: "Have mercy on us, O You who alone are merciful!"

Kondakion of the Encounter (Tone 1)

O Christ our God who through Your birth have sanctified the virginal womb and have now blessed the arms of Simeon, today You have come to save us. O Lord, when wars prevail, keep Your people in peace and strengthen our Public Authorities in every good deed, for You alone are the Lover of Mankind.

PROKIMENON

Make vows to the Lord your God and fulfill them; let all round about bring gifts to the awesome God.

Stichon: God is renowned in Judah; in Israel, great is His name.

It is a great joy for priests and other clergy to work in company with Christ and see Him restore life to others in so many ways through their ministry, as we can imagine in the case of His disciples in the early Church. We are in great need for dedicated priests, deacons, subdeacons and readers to continue this same apostolic ministry and to be fathers and servants to the people of our parishes. Please pray for vocations and encourage any potential candidates you may notice.

Announcements:

Please, email Fr. Thomas to request prayer intentions and memorials or to discuss information and “thank you” notes to be included in future bulletins: fatherthomasmoses@gmail.com.

Parish Advisory Council Meeting

Please join us on Monday February 28th at 6:00 PM for a Parish Advisory Council Meeting. All are welcome! Fr. Thomas is looking for folks with finance or building maintenance experience to help advise future work.

Please contact Fr. Thomas if you are willing to serve on a financial or building maintenance committee.

Melkite Liturgical Services Livestream at St. George in Birmingham, AL

If you are homebound, unable to attend Divine Liturgy at St. Basil’s, or would like to participate in weekday feast day services or Lenten services, please participate by praying with our Melkite brethren in Birmingham, AL, led by Fr. Justin Rose on the parish’s Facebook livestream:

<https://www.facebook.com/StGeorgeMelkite/>

Call Fr. Thomas at the parish phone line if you need help navigating the recordings or livestream.

Lenten Prayer Group

During Lent, beginning on Tuesday March 8th at 6:00 PM, a prayer group will meet on Zoom weekly. Meetings will take place on Tuesday nights at 6:00 pm, on Zoom. The prayer group will help encourage each other in our fasting, share prayer intentions for the week, read and pray some of the readings and prayers from the Lenten weekday services, and to sing some of the beautiful hymns of the Great Fast. Meetings will last about 20 or 30 minutes. All are encouraged to attend. All that is needed is either a smart phone or a computer. Please email Fr. Thomas to sign up or if you need help download and using Zoom.

Note: If preferred by all in attendance, Facebook Messenger is another option for meeting.

Memorial Gift for Fr. Saba

Father Thomas would like to commission an icon for the adornment of the baptistry, and Maryann Astour is arranging for a memorial plaque to be included with St. Basil’s departed pastors, both in memory of Fr. Saba Shofany. Please contact Fr. Thomas if you would like to contribute to the projects.

Thank You:

Maryann Astour for helping Fr. Thomas arrange for the state inspection of the parish furnaces
(We passed inspection!).

“The Pharisee and the Publican”

Coloring Page and Reading

Gospel Reading

Luke 18:9-14

9 Also He spoke this parable to some who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others: 10 “Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee and the other a tax collector. 11 The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, ‘God, I thank You that I am not like other men— extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this tax collector. 12 I fast twice a week; I give tithes of all that I possess.’ 13 And the tax collector, standing afar off, would not so much as raise his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, ‘God, be merciful to me a sinner!’ 14 I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be [d]humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted.”

Reading Corner: LENT IS APPROACHING!

The Great Fast, also known as Lent, is a time to prepare for the celebration of Easter or Pascha, the day of the Resurrection of our Lord Jesus Christ. For Melkites, Lent begins at Vespers on Forgiveness Sunday rather than Ash Wednesday; this year the beginning of the Great Fast falls on Monday, February 28th. We will begin the Great Fast with a service called Forgiveness Vespers on Sunday February 27th. Please read through the following explanation of the weeks of preparation for the Great Fast as well as an explanation of fasting more generally.

Please keep in mind, we are all at different places in our “ascetical” life. This means we are all more or less accustomed to the exercises, training and disciplines of our Melkite tradition. Each person is called to embrace fasting according to their ability, zeal, health, and circumstances. Please see Fr. Thomas if you would like to discuss your plans for observing the Great Fast this year.

The Pre-Fast Weeks

Documents from the sixth through the eighth centuries attest to a growing custom in the East of observing one week in preparation for the Great Fast. Today this pre-Fast period in the Byzantine Churches consists in the following:

- Two Sundays in which the Gospel readings at the Divine Liturgy invite us to reflect on humility (Pharisee and Publican) and God’s ever-welcoming love (Prodigal Son).
- A Fast-Free Week between these two Sundays in which we are told not to fast, lest we take pride in our efforts like the Pharisee.
- Meat-Fare Week, the last time meat is eaten before Pascha. This week includes a Saturday of the Dead in which we make a general commemoration of all who have gone before us.
- Cheese-Fare Week, the last time dairy products are eaten before Pascha. Cheese-Fare Week ends with Forgiveness Sunday and the ultimate preparation for the Fast: mutual forgiveness.

Fasting and Our Renewal

The preparation for the Great Fast in the Byzantine Churches focuses to a great extent on fasting. Why is fasting so emphasized if the purpose of this season is the renewal of our life in Christ?

In the Scriptures the great “icon” of our communion with God is “Eden, the Garden of God” (Ez 28:13) where God walked with Adam and Eve. That communion was broken by eating the so-called forbidden fruit. Eating became the sign of choosing one’s own will over the will of God. This is why the first way in which the devil tempted Christ concerned food. Fasting – not eating – is thus a symbol of putting aside our own will in order to recover our communion with God. In our society, where food is so abundant, eating is an even more fitting symbol for doing our own will. We can choose to eat whatever we feel like. We can pass up foods which don’t please us. We throw away food without a second thought. We may not be able to indulge our lust for power or wealth very easily; we can always reach for another piece of cake.

Many people prepare for Lent by deciding what they will give up. Fasting in the Christian East is not a matter of personal choice, but of surrendering one's will to the Church which determines when and how to fast. This does not mean that the fasting rules are unchangeable, but one should have the blessing of one's spiritual guide before excusing oneself from the fast. The heart of the fast is putting aside one's ego.

In the Great Fast we refrain from eating for at least part of each day (until noon, or mid- afternoon or until we receive the Eucharist) for 40 days. This number recalls the 40-day fasts of Moses before receiving the Ten Commandments (see Ex 34:27-29) and of Elijah before encountering God on Mount Horeb (see 1 Kgs 19:8-12). For Christians, of course, the Lord Jesus' 40-day fast in the wilderness after His baptism stands out as the foremost example of fasting and communion with God.

Why Animal Products?

Again, let us return to the Garden of God. In the book of Genesis, we read that God said to our first parents, "See, I have given you every herb that yields seed which is on the face of all the earth, and every tree whose fruit yields seed; to you it shall be for food" (Gen 1:29). Fruits and vegetables, nuts and grains made up the diet of humanity both before and after the fall (see Gen 3:18). It was only after the flood, when the earth had been laid waste, that God tells Noah, "The fear of you and the dread of you shall be on every beast of the earth, on every bird of the air, on all that move on the earth, and on all the fish of the sea. They are given into your hand. Every moving thing that lives shall be food for you" (Gen 9:2, 3). In abstaining from animal products, then, we are returning to the "food of paradise," the diet of the first created, to symbolize our desire to recover the communion with God for which they were made.

Homily 45 by St Theodore the Studite

Brethren: fasting is the renewal of the soul, for the Apostle says that as the body weakens and withers from the ascetic labor of fasting, then is the soul renewed day by day. It is made beautiful and shines in the beauty which God originally bestowed upon it. And when it is purified and adorned with fasting and repentance, then God loves it and will live in it as the Lord has said: "I and the Father will come and make Our abode with him" (Jn 14.23). ... Now at the beginning the Fast seems laborious, but if we shall apply ourselves from day to day with ardor and discipline, then with the help of God it will be made easier. At the same time, if we desire that the Fast be true and acceptable to God, then together with abstaining from food, let us restrain ourselves from every sin of soul and body, as the sticheron instructs us: "Let us keep the Fast not only by refraining from food, but by becoming strangers to all sinful passions" (Aposticha at Vespers, First Tuesday in the Great Fast).

Abouna's Kitchen

Peanut Butter Balls

This is a quick fasting snack that is protein packed. We love making these peanut butter balls during the Great Fast.

1 cup Rolled Oats
3 tsp. Chia Seeds
1 Tb. Flaxseeds
¼ cup Raisins
6 tsp. Mini Dark Chocolate Chips
½ tsp. Salt
¼ cup Honey
½ cup Peanut Butter

Directions:

1. Combine all dry ingredients in a large mixing bowl.
2. Add honey and peanut butter.
3. Roll into small balls and place on a cookie sheet.
4. Place cookie sheet in the refrigerator to set.
5. When storing in a container in the refrigerator, separate layers with wax paper.
